

“It was as if in the darkness of night, the poor and oppressed had touched my outstretched hand and having established contact, God was helping me to lift them to that higher standard of dignity and self-respect that follows a full day’s work for a decent day’s pay.”

Sir Randol Fawkes

The Faith that Moved the Mountain (Chapter VI)