

“We, workers in the vineyard of our Father, have built this house to the glory of God and to the fellowship of workers and for the enrichment of the common life.”

The Faith That Moved the Mountain
Chapter 14